computed from July 5, 1789, until Oct. 10, 1790;
which Interest shall be expressed in the Cerment of the Sums contributed, and shall be paid at the Exchequer, for the Quarter ending Oct. 10, 1790.

Every Contributor, who shall pay in Advance any Instalment, shall be intitled to 3*l.* per Cent.
thereon, from the Day on which the Money was advanced to the Day appointed for Payment: But if any Contributor shall neglect to pay his Subscription when it becomes due, the Sums actually paid in shall be forfeited to the Use of the Publick.

As soon as any Contributor shall have completed his Payments, he shall, by Oct. 10, 1790, receive from the Cashier, for every Share, a Certificate directed to the Auditor of the Exchequer, printed or written on Cheque Paper, and cut out indentwise through some Device, which Certificate shall contain the Name and Addition of the Proprietor, and shall be assignable, by Indorsement thereon, witnessed by Two Persons, at any Time before Oct. 10, 1790, for which Certificate no Stamp-duty shall be paid: And the Cashier shall transmit to the Auditor a Counterpart of the Cheques of all such Certificates, upon which Counterpart shall be expressed the Number of the Certificate, and the Name of the Person to whom it shall have been granted.

The Contributors shall, by Oct. 10, 1790, deliver their Certificates to the Auditor, to be exchanged for Orders; and shall also at the same Time describe, on the Back of the Certificates, the Nominees; and in Case any Certificate shall not be delivered, and Nominee appointed, by Oct. 10, 1790, the Proprietor shall forfeit, to the Use of the Publick, the Money subscribed by him.

When any Default in Payment shall be certified by the Cashier, or by the Auditor, to the Commissioners of the Treasury, and such Default shall,
by them, be declared a Forfeiture, the Auditor may admit any other Person, prior to Oct. 10, 1790, to be a Subscriber instead of the Defaulter.

Where any Person, after completing his Payments, shall neglect to Name his Nominee by Oct. 10, 1790, and such Default shall be declared to be a Forfeiture as aforesaid, the Annuity which he otherwise would have been entitled to shall be divided among the Annuitants of the Class in which it shall be placed by the drawing of Lots, in such Manner as the Treasury shall direct.

The Contributors who shall deliver to the Auditor their Certificates, and appoint their Nominees by

by Ord. 10, 1790, shall, on the Receipt of the Orders to be made out in Manner herein-after mentioned, be intitled to Interest for the advanced Payments as aforesaid, and to receive, during the Life of every Nominee, an Annuity at the Rates aforesaid, with the Benefit of Survivorship, in Manner hereafter mentioned.

P. 974. Any Person may be a Proprietor of as many Certificates as he thinks fit; and the Auditor shall, on receiving such Certificates, cause a distinct Order to be made out in the Exchequer for the Payment of an Annuity for every 100*l.* 5*s.* so certified; which Orders shall be made out on Parchment, and shall contain the Names and Places of Abode of the Proprietors, and of their Nominees, with their Ages, and the Parents of such Nominees, with other Descriptions to ascertain the Person and Age of such Nominees, and also the particular Classes in which they are to be placed, and the Annuities to which the Proprietors shall be entitled; and in the Auditor's and Clerk of the Pells Offices there shall be kept Books, in which every Certificate shall be entered previous to the issuing of the Order; and all such Orders shall be signed by Three Commissioners of the Treasury.

P. 975. If any Proprietor of an Order shall, by Ord. 10, 1790, signify to the Treasury, that his Nominee is dead, or that he is desirous of substituting another, the Treasury, on the Re-delivery of such Order to the Auditor to be cancelled, shall substitute a new Life, and cause a new Order to be made out in Manner aforesaid.

P. 976. Any Guardian or Trustee may purchase Annuities for Infants, who shall be named the Nominees; and such Infants shall, on their arriving at full Age, become the Proprietors in the Room of their Guardians or Trustees.

P. 977. Every Contributor, on the Delivery of his Certificates, and before the Nominees shall be entered in the Auditor's Book, shall, if such Certificates declare the Nominees to be of the Age of 20 Years or upwards, produce to the Auditor an Affidavit of the Age of such Nominees, their Place of Abode, the Names of their Parents, and other Descriptions; which Affidavits shall be made by the Nominees or Contributors, &c. and may be taken before any Judge of the Courts at Westminster; and they, being filed with the Certificates at the Auditor's Office, shall be a sufficient Warrant for delivering the Orders for the Payment of the Annuities; or the Contributors may produce a Copy of the Register of the Birth of every Nominee of the Age of 20 or upwards, certified by the Minister of the Place where the Register is kept, and the Churchwardens and Overseers, or any Two of the principal Inhabitants there, and attested by Two credible Witnesses; and they shall also annex to every such Certificate an Affidavit as aforesaid, made by One of the Witnesses who attested the Certificate, before a Judge of the Courts at Westminster, or before Two Justices of the Place from whence the Certificate comes (if in England or Scotland), or (if in Ireland) then before One of the Barons of the Exchequer there), that he saw the Certificate signed; and they shall likewise annex an Affidavit, made by them before a Judge of the Courts at Westminster, that the Person described in the Register of Birth produced to the Auditor is the Person named his Nominee; for which Registers, Oaths, or Certificates, if made in Great Britain, no Fee shall be taken, nor Stamp-duty paid.

In case any Nominee shall at the Time of his Appointment be resident in any British Dominions beyond the Seas, the Contributors shall produce to the Auditor a Certificate of his Name and Place of Abode, &c. under the Hand of the Governor or Deputy Governor of the Settlement where he lives; or if such Nominee be resident in any foreign Kingdom in Europe, such Certificate shall be under the Hand of the British Minister resident there; or if he lives in any other Part beyond the Seas, or in case no British Minister shall be resident at the Place where he resides, the Certificate shall be under the Hand and Seal of the Chief Magistrate there; and the Contributors shall also annex to every such Certificate an Affidavit, to be made before a Baron of the Exchequer at Westminster, that he believes such Certificate to be true.

If any Person shall take a false Oath in any of the Cases in this Act set forth, and be lawfully convicted, he may be transported for Seven Years.

If any Certificate of the Cashier shall be delivered at the Auditor's Office with a false Indorsement of the Age of any Nominee, with an Intent to defraud His Majesty, the Proprietor thereof shall forfeit, to the Use of the Publick his Subscription.

The Orders for Annuities shall be formed by the Auditor into Classes, according to the Ages of the Nominees; and each Class of Orders shall be numbered in arithmetical Progression, according to the Course in which they shall be made out, and they shall be ranked in Manner following; (viz.)

The Nominees under the Age of 20, and the Annuities payable on their Lives, shall form the First Class:

The Nominees of the Age of 20, and under 30, shall form the Second Class:

The Nominees of the Age of 30, and under 40, shall form the Third Class:

The Nominees of the Age of 40, and under 50, shall form the Fourth Class:

The Nominees of the Age of 50, and under 60, shall form the Fifth Class:

And the Nominees of 60, or upwards, shall form the Sixth Class: p. 982.

But if any Contributor shall, at the Time of his appointing a Nominee, signify to the Auditor a Desire that such Nominee, being of the Age of 20 or upwards, may be placed in the First Class the Auditor may class him there accordingly.

On the Death of any Nominee, the Annuity payable on his Life shall be divided among the Survivors in the Class to which he belonged, until, by Deaths, each Survivor shall receive for One Share 100*l.*; after which there shall be no more Benefit of Survivorship. p. 983.

Any Contributor, during the Life of his Nominee by Indorsement on his Order, witnessed by Two Persons, may assign his Right to another, which being being notified in the Auditor's Office, the Officers there shall cause an Entry thereof to be made in the Book of Registry for such Orders, and after such Entry the Assignee shall be intitled to the Benefit of the Assignment.

p. 985. Every Annuitant, on Demand of a half-yearly Payment of his Annuity (unless the Nominee appears), shall produce a Certificate of the Life of his Nominee, signed by the Minister and Churchwardens of the Parish where he lives, on the Day of Payment, if resident in Great-Britain, or he may make Oath of the Fact before a Judge of the Courts at Westminster, or a Justice of the Place wherein he resides; and no Fee or Stamp-duty shall be payable for such Certificates or Oaths, which are to be filed by the Auditor.

p. 986. In case any Nominee shall, at the Time of such Demand, be resident in the Kingdom of Ireland, the Annuitants shall produce a Certificate of his Life, under the Hand of a Baron of the Exchequer there, who shall certify, that on Proof made on Oath, it seems probable that such Nominee is living; and in case any Nominee shall, when Payment is demanded, be resident in any Part beyond the Seas, in any of His Majesty's Dominions, a Certificate of his Life, under the Hand of the Governor, or Deputy Governor, of the Settlement where he resides shall be produced; and if he shall be resident in any foreign Kingdom in Europe in Amity with His Majesty, a like Certificate shall be produced under the Hand of the British Minister resident in the Place where he resides; and if he lives at any other Place beyond the Seas, or in case no British Governor, &c. shall be resident there, the Certificate of his Life must be under the Hand and Seal of the Chief Magistrate of that Place.

p. 987. Every Person producing a Certificate for Payment of an Annuity, shall annex thereto an Affidavit, made before a Baron of the Exchequer, that he believes such Certificate to be true; and if any Nominee shall appear at the Exchequer for Payment of an Annuity the Auditor may require him to produce an Affidavit made before a Baron of the Exchequer, in Proof of his Identity.

If any Person shall receive Payment of an Annuity for any Time beyond the Death of the Nominee, (he knowing such Nominee to be dead), he shall forfeit to His Majesty Treble its Value, and also 500*l.* whereof One Half shall go to His Majesty, and the other to the Prosecutor.

p. 988. Every Contributor, within One Month after receiving Notice of the Death of his Nominee shall certify it to the Auditor, and shall also, within Three Months after such Notice, deliver up to him the Order by which he was intitled, during the Life of such Nominee, to any Share of the Annuities, if in his Power, on Penalty of 10*l.* to the Prosecutor.

The Annuities shall be free from Taxes, and deemed Personal Estate.

If any Annuitant shall neglect to demand Payment of his Annuity until within 40 Days before Two Years Payment shall have become due, to be computed from the 5th of April, 1791; and in case no Certificate of the Life of the Nominee shall be produced, he shall be considered as dead, and the Annuity shall be divided among the Survivors of his Class: But if such Nominee shall afterwards appear to be living, by a regular Demand being made, the Annuitant shall be intitled to future Payments. p. 989.

In the Auditor's Office there shall be made up every Half Year, within 40 Days before the Days of Payment, an Account of the Nominees whose Deaths are come to Knowledge, and of the Persons who have not demanded Annuities for Two Years.

But if any Annuitant shall, within the Time before limited, make Oath before a Baron of the Exchequer, that, to his Belief, his Nominee is living, and resident Abroad, and that he is not able to obtain the necessary Document, but believes that such Document may be obtained within a reasonable Time (which Time the Baron shall limit); and such Baron shall certify that it seems probable that the Nominee was living at the Time specified; the Auditor shall set apart the Money payable on such Life; and if such Nominee shall, within the Time limited for the Production of such Certificate, &c. appear to be living, or to have been living at the Time any half-yearly Payment became payable, the Auditor shall pay the Annuity. p. 990.

The Treasury, on Certificate under the Hand of a Baron, that he is satisfied by Proof on Oath, that any Order has been lost or destroyed, shall cause a new one to be made forth in lieu of it; but the Person in whose Favour the new Order is made, shall give Security for Re-delivery thereof to be cancelled, if the original one shall thereafter be produced; and the Treasury may likewise cause new Orders to be made for such as shall become defaced or incumbered with Assignments, which defaced Orders shall be delivered up and cancelled; and on such new Orders Entries shall be made to denote their being made in lieu of defaced ones. p. 991.

If any Person shall counterfeit or alter any Certificate, or any Order or Assignment thereof, as aforesaid, or any Receipt to the Exchequer for such Annuities, or any Instrument, to transfer any Order, or to receive the Annuities due thereon; or shall demand to have any such counterfeit Certificate, or any Certificate given by such Cashier with any counterfeit Indorsement thereon, exchanged at the Exchequer for an Order, with Intent to defraud any Person; or shall personate the Proprietor of any order, or any Nominee, with a fraudulent Intent, he shall, on Conviction, suffer Death. p. 992.

The Treasury shall, on May 20, 1792, (or as soon after as conveniently) and so yearly, cause to be printed and published a List of the Nominees, in which shall be inserted their proper Descriptions, and all Alterations and Additions which ought to be made therein by Reason of Deaths within the Year previous to such Publication, and also all Defaults made in demanding Payment of Annuities, as far as these Matters have come to their Knowledge; and they shall cause a sufficient Number of such Lists to be deposited at some convenient Place in London or Westminster, (whereof Notice shall be given in the London Gazette), to be distributed among the Annuitants. p. 994.
